Primary Election Ordered For May 22, 1897.

In pursuance to call the Democratic County Committee met in this city, yesterday, and ordered a primary election for Saturday, May 22, 1897. The Committee then adjourned to meet again on the first Monday in April.

The following was unanimously adopted:

"Believing that the best interests of the people of Kentucky are bound up with the Democratic party and knowing from experience that Democratic control in local affairs is absolutely essential to the people's welfare, we trust that all Democrats, regardless of differences of opinion upon questions of National policy, will unite in the selection of good men for the offices, thus insuring to Bourbon County an efficient and economical administration of local affairs."

"Resolved, That a Primary election be and the same is hereby ordered to be held on, Saturday, the 22d day of May, 1897, for the purpose of nominating Democratic candidates for the following offices, to-wit: County Judge, County Attorney, Sheriff, County Clerk, Circuit Clerk, County Assessor, Superintendent of Public Schools, Jailer, Coroner, Representative for Bourbon County, Magistrates and Constables in the several magisterial districts."

T. E. MOORE,
Chmn. Dem. Co. Com.
D. C. PARRISH, Secretary.

Meeting Of Sound Money Democrats.

At a meeting of National Democrats of Bourbon County, in this city, Saturday, it was resolved to maintain party organization "to promote and advance the principles of pure Democracy."

It was the sense of those present that no part should be taken by National Democrats in the coming primaries. However, this question will again be brought forward at an early meeting of Sound-Money Democrats.

GOSSIPY PARAGRAPHS.

Theatrical And Otherwise—Remarks In The Forum.

Salter & Martin's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. played to a large audience Saturday night at the Grand. The performance was the best ever given in Paris by an Uncle Tom company. A precocious child who did a song and dance specialty was the cleverest member of the company. Her specialties were remarkably good for one so young.

Adelaide Hermann, wife of Alexander Hermann, the magician, says that her husband's sudden death was caused by heart disease brought on by the incessant use of cigarettes. Hermann's nephew and pupil, Leon Hermann, will succeed the dead magician and complete the tour arranged for this season.

Thos. Keene, the eminent American tragedian, gave a fine production of "Julius Caesar," last night at Lexington. Olga Nethersole, the celebrated English actress, plays "Denise" Thursday night, and Sol Smith Russell, everybody's favorite, comes to Lexington at an early date.

A good sized audience saw "The Burglar" Co. give a poor performance Thursday night at the Grand. The burglar and little Editha were the only acceptable members of the very weak cast.

Chauncey Olcott will produce a new play, "Sweet Innocence," on the 25th, in New York.

Dashing Vernona Jarbeau will star next season in a burlesque production of "Carmen."

Thos. Keene plays in Winchester, Lexington and Frankfort this week.

SCINTILLATIONS.

An Interesting Jumble Of News And Comment.

Suit for divorce has been filed at Danville by Mrs. Granville Cecil against her husband, the wealthy banker and horseman. He is a member of the firm of G. & P. Cecil.

A new departure at the Kentucky State College is a short winter course in agriculture. The course began yesterday and continues eight weeks. It is offered free of tuition to any young man in the state.

The report of the grand jury at Owensboro on the Holt mob investigation, states that no evidence was received sufficient to issue any indictment. The December term of the Circuit Court adjourned Saturday afternoon.

A dispatch from Vanceburg says that Henry D. Halbert, who was married last week at that place, has been sued for $50,000 for breach of promise by Alice Armstrong, of Cincinnati, formerly of Vanceburg. Halbert is wealthy.

Robt. Laughlin, the wife-murderer, will be hanged Saturday at Brooksville, Ky. Laughlin, who is now confined in the Covington jail with Alonzo Walling and Scott Jackson, has agreed to come back in spirit form to the hanging of Jackson and Walling.

A SPECIAL from Washington, Saturday, says: "The monthly coinage statement issued by the Bureau of the Mint, shows the total coinage at the mints of the United States during December, 1896, to have been $7,017,419, of which $4,363,165 was gold, $2,551,968 silver and $102,286 minor coins. Of the silver coined $1,700,000 was in standard dollars."

This is a thoughtless, wasteful world, for while one man goes battling with the winter without half enough clothes another gets excited and burns eight or ten pounds of Gen. Weyler in effigy. —[Exchange.]

APPROPOS of science and these hard times, it is perhaps correct to say that adversity and the Roentgen rays are about equally effective in discovering what there really is in a man.

THE trouble with the most of this "exclusive cabinet news" which leaks out is that it has a bad habit of leaking back again.

GEN. WEYLER and the cat are now a tie in the matter of coming back.

Almost Distracted?

DID YOU EVER suffer from real nervousness? When every nerve seemed to quiver with a peculiar, creepy feeling, first in one place, and then another, and all seemed finally to concentrate in a writhing jumble in the brain, and you become irritable, fretful and peevish; to be followed by an impatient, weakened condition of the nerve centers, ringing in the ears, and sleepless, miserable nights? Mrs. Eugene Seales, 110 Simonton St., Elkhart, Ind., says: "Nervous troubles had made me nearly insane and physicians were unable to help me. My memory was almost gone and every little thing worried me until I was almost distracted. I really feared I was becoming a maniac. I imagined all sorts of evil things and would cry over nothing. I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and four bottles of this wonderful remedy completely cured me, and I am as well now as I ever was."

Dr. Miles' Nervine is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.

is made up of the most essential elements that go to nourish the body. Where the appetite is varying or lacking, it increases it, and where digestion is weak, it aids it to perform its function in a more vigorous way. It enriches the blood, makes healthy flesh and cures chronic coughs and colds by making it possible for the body to resist disease. Our friends tell us "IT WORKS WONDERS" but we never like to overstate the merits of our remedy even when it has been tested and tried for over twenty-five years. If you will ask for it, we will send you a book telling you more about the subject than we can put in a few words.

Go to your druggist for Scott's Emulsion. Two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, New York.
